

The Content Editor's Essential Proofing Checklist

When preparing a full website for launch or checking a new page before it goes live, follow our essential checklist to ensure nothing is missed:

Text

- Consistent layout across all pages
- Spell check has been used
- Formatting is correct and consistent
- All content is unique (no duplication)
- Second proof for readability

Forms and Downloads

- Appearing correctly
- Working properly
- Correct email is set up in all forms
- Email address receives form
- Files download correctly
- Download size and type of files is displayed
- Website contact form/page is set up

Images

- Brand logo is clear
- Favicon is present in browser tab
- Images are appearing and are clear/crisp
- File sizes have been optimised
- Images contain a relevant Alt Tag
- Images have been named appropriately
- Each page loads in good time (~3 seconds)

Navigation and Links

- Navigation is displaying correctly
- Navigation is linking properly
- Destination links are active and working
- Internal links open in the same tab
- External links open in a new tab
- Access points are used within larger bodies of text (hyperlinks)

Sitemap and Legal Pages

- Sitemap is available
- Legal pages are set up:
  - Cookie Policy
  - Terms of Use
  - Privacy Policy
- Copyright is displayed and is up-to-date

Error Page

- Set up and displaying correctly
- Contains a link back to the Homepage
- Displays relevant error information

Mobile

- Site loads in mobile view
- Pages are responsive
- Navigation is functional and accessible
- Images appear correctly and clearly
- Content is displaying as it should be
- Text is formatted correctly
- Optimal loading times (~5 seconds)

Metadata and SEO

- Suitable titles, meta tags and descriptions are used
- Most relevant keyword(s) chosen
- Blog titles optimised for Search Engines
- Analytics tool is set up
- Sitemap registered with Google Webmaster
- Familiar points of reference are present:
  - Home
  - About Us
  - Contact Us